PENSACOLA SUFFERED

Worst Visitation of Wind Known at That Place.

THIRTY KNOWN DEAD

Property Loss About Five Millions of Dollars and Hurricane at One Time Attained Hundred Miles Per Hour.

Pensacola, Oct. 1.—Not since the Galveston disaster has such a hurricane swept the gulf coast as the one which struck this city on the morning of Sept. 27 with all impelling force, and raged for twelve hours, the wind blowing at eighty and ninety miles an hour, with occasional gusts of 100 miles per hour. The known loss of life up to date is thirty, which will probably be increased to seventy-five, while the property loss will exceed $5,000,000.

Never in the history of this port, nor of Florida, has such wreck and devastation been wrought. Hundreds of persons are homeless, without food and clothing, and cared for by charity. Many are suffering for want of the necessities of life, and others from exposure. Great steam ships and ocean-going sailing vessels, which have withstood the hurricanes of oceans, were helpless before the terrible death-dealing force, and are totally a mangled heap upon beaches, mingled with the wrecks of fishing schooners, tug boats and pleasure boats, while thousands of stacks of timber and homes and wharves are intermingled with this congregation of wreckage. From Fort McRae to Escambia bridge, a distance of ten miles, the bay shore has been swept clean, except a few wharves, where floated a fleet of seventy-five large ships before the hurricane. McRae, one of the modern coast fortifications, has been swept from the earth and five lives lost. Five others are raving maniacs from their terrible experience. They saved themselves by lashing to the batteries.

Fort Pickens and Fort Barrancas are badly damaged, the former almost wrecked.

The navy yard has suffered to the extent of over $1,000,000. Five war vessels were sunk and driven ashore, the floating dock crushed and other damage sustained. Three lives were lost there.

The life-saving and urgent station at Santa Rosa Island have been swept completely off the beach, and five persons are known to have been drowned there.

The magnificent Escambia draw bridge, costing hundreds of thousands of dollars, is gone and three lives were lost. It was more than a mile in length, and owned by the Louisville and Nashville railway. Three immense port docks of that company have been swept away or damaged. Every wharf and warehouse along the city has been completely demolished and the Red Snapper fishing industry, the largest in the world, destroyed. The immense packing houses have been carried away, and of a fleet of about sixty vessels, two of the remain.

From hundreds to thousands of homes have been destroyed, and fully 2,000 damaged to the extent of hundreds of thousands of dollars. The city is in a terrible condition, and relief committees are working night and day in efforts to relieve the sufferings of hundreds of destitute.

NEGRO HORSEWHIPS BOY.

Mob Organized, but the Former Succeeds in Escaping.

Dallas, Oct. 1.—Because Charlie Rhodes, a white boy ten years old, refused to pick up the cap of a negro in a buggy at the corner of Cochran street and Central avenue Sunday night the latter severely whipped the lad with his buggy whip. A mob was quietly formed, but the negro jumped into his buggy and escaped.

FROM EAR TO EAR.

Negress' Throat Cut and She Instantly Expires.

Houston, Oct. 1.—Chaneyville, a suburb, was thrown into a state of excitement over a murder in which the throat of Katie Dennis, a negress, was cut from ear to ear, and Winstond Drummond, a negro, fled, being chased by the police.

The woman's throat was cut to the bone from side to side with a pocket knife. She died instantly.

ASSAULTS LADY.

Fifty Citizens Assist Officers in Search For Negro.

Mineral Wells, Tex., Oct. 1.—Miss Louise Shoemaker of Greenville, visiting her uncle, Hugh Martin, was assaulted by an unknown negro. The negro was caught in the house after burglarizing it, but managed to escape. Fifty citizens started with officers in pursuit.

Throat and Arm Slashed.

Denison, Oct. 1.—Walter Blackwell was seriously slashed at the cotton mill. His throat was gashed and an arm cut to the bone. Cecil Jones was arrested.

CRYING LITTLE ONES

In Some Places in the Vicinity of Mobile the People Are Forced to Array Themselves in Coffee Sacks.

Mobile, Oct. 1.—A heavy rainstorm, but without wind, set in Sunday night and greatly interfered with the work of construction gangs. It is found, too, it will cause much suffering and some deaths along the coast of the south end of Mobile bay. Many people are homeless in that section and living in the woods with scanty supplies of provisions. The exposure of another storm cannot but have a serious effect upon women and children.

On Dauphin island there are 500 people homeless, with only three small buildings in which they can obtain shelter. In spite of the fact that two relief expeditions have been sent out the supply of provisions is wellnigh exhausted. Another supply was sent Monday.

There is need of urgent aid at several points on Mobile bay, and assistance for the unfortunates sent here will be gratefully received and promptly forwarded.

Mobile deeply appreciates the many proffers of aid tendered by other cities, but is able to take care of her own destitute. The citizens hope those at outside points in need of assistance will secure it.

Arrests were made Monday at some of the lower coast resorts of negroes caught looting wrecked homes. The militia has been sent to Coden and other places nearby to protect property.

Word has been received that thirty or forty Creoles on Monfils island are destitute and in imminent danger of starvation.

Citizens of Mobile have undertaken relief measures with energy and are sending food and clothing to the stricken points as rapidly as possible, but there is so much suffering at various points to which access is so difficult that it is certain great suffering must follow. Next to food the great need is for clothing. Men and women in some places have been reduced to wearing coffee sacks for clothing, and there are few sacks to be had at that. The first thing done by the relief expedition sent from here Sunday to Coden was to give clothing to the people with which to cover themselves.

Suffering has been intense at Bayou la Batrie, and is still acute. Members of the relief committee which visited that place Sunday reported they were followed by little children crying and begging piteously for a piece of bread. A large number of tents have been taken to Dauphin island.

FOURTEEN DEAD.

Twelve of This Number Were Drowned in Mississippi Sound.

New Orleans, Oct. 1.—Fourteen are dead and as many more missing as the result of last Thursday's hurricane in the vicinity of New Orleans. Twelve persons were drowned in Mississippi sound, two killed in interior towns of southern Mississippi and more than a dozen fishermen are reported missing in the delta region of the Mississippi river south of this city. This summary is based upon reports from almost every town or settlement in or about the regions named, such places as could not be communicated with by telegraph having been reached by boat or horse.

New Orleans is still without sufficient telegraph communication and eastern mails are three or four days overdue.

REMNANT OF STORM.

Central Monday Morning Over Northeastern Portion of Gulf.

Washington, Oct. 1.—The weather bureau Monday reported. "The remnant of the gulf storm of last week was central Monday morning over the northeast portion of the Gulf of Mexico. It had not developed sufficient energy to cause more than fresh winds and rain in the gulf and south Atlantic states.

STATE OF COMA.

Little Boy Has Been in This Condition Over Ninety Days.

New York, Oct. 1.—Malcolm Dingman, eight years of age, son of a physician, has lain in a state of coma at his home in Spring Valley, N. J., for ninety days. The boy is suffering from a tumor on the brain and is doomed to certain death.

His record of unconsciousness is the longest known to the medical profession in any similar case. The unfortunate boy has received the benefit of the best medical and surgical advice that the country affords, but all efforts to save his life have been in vain. His condition has excited much interest in the medical profession.

The beautiful white marble corner stone, dressed and lettered by Mr. B. E. Hawes, bears inscriptions on the three exposed sides as follows: "M. E. Church South, 1906, I. F. Betts, Pastor; J. E. Flanders, Architect; C. E. Jenkins, Contractor; Building Committee, E. J. Jenkins, Ed Hall, R. O. Allen, A. M. Waldrop, R. S. Webb, J. H. Webb, C. G. Walker, W. H. Lawrence, J. H. Allen, I. F. Betts, Malcolm Carnes." In the stone were placed two boxes, that from the burned church containing the articles originally placed therein, and a new box containing the following articles: Bible, Hymn Book, names of the pastor and presiding elder, official members of the church, building committee, officers of the Epworth League and of the Home Mission and Foreign Mission societies, copies of the Christian Advocate and Texas Advocate and a copy of the Eagle giving the program of the exercises.

The corner stone of the burned church was placed in the building beneath the new one, and on it are the names of E. L. Shettles, pastor, and George Jenkin, contractor, together with the date, 1902.

DIED AT MILLICAN.

Millican, Tex., Sept. 30.—Geo. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Smith of this place, died at Houston yesterday and the remains were interred this evening at 4 o'clock. He was about 30 years old. He leaves a young wife and infant son. He was a fireman on the Santa Fe road from Houston to Galveston.

CARD OF THANKS.

Words are meager to express my thanks to the good people of Bryan, and especially my near neighbors and the noble women of the Baptist church, also Dr. Mondrick, for their many favors and kindnesses extended to me during the sickness in my family. Sincerely, J. H. Gammon.

DISTRICT COURT.

District court opened for the fifth week yesterday, and the following jurors were sworn in: N. A. Cotnam, E. U. Peters, J. W. Skains, J. W. Henderson, W. S. Jones, O. L. Andrews, W. J. Graham, Fred Locke, J. W. Ayers, M. W. Rudasill, T. A. Hensarling, W. M. Hudspeth, S. E. Rhodes, W. H. Cole, J. L. Robertson, C. H. Holmes, Joe Atkins, J. J. Cahill, Dave Jolly, A. W. Rhodes, J. D. Grelan, J. W. Carroll, Sam B. Wilson, Joe Boretsky, W. D. Sellars.

Dr. C. L. Versea, colored, was placed on trial yesterday charged with murder in the second degree, in connection with the death of Annie Cabiness, a negro woman. The case against Dr. J. S. Reid, colored, will be dismissed by the state, Reid being made a witness for the state.

NEGRO KILLED SUNDAY.

A negro named Rufus Burrell was killed Sunday afternoon at or near Silver City, below Millican, by another negro who it is stated was last week released from custody here upon payment of a fine for aggravated assault, the charge against him having been reduced from assault to murder. The Burrell negro had his throat cut. No arrest has been reported to the Eagle at this writing.

REACHING FOR NEW BUSINESS.

A visit to Coulter's Clothing Department will reveal to the buyer a large and well assorted stock neatly arranged in the rear of the store upstairs and easily accessible. The new styles are attractively placarded and the handsomely tailored Schwab clothing instantly catches the eye of those who appreciate style and quality. Coulter is making a specialty of the Schwab Special $15.00 suit and has more than one thousand dollars worth of this grade alone to select from. His prices on Schwab clothing range from $15.00 to $20.00. Coulter says he is pulling for the best class of clothing trade and is satisfied with less than hold-up profits. 66

THAT $15.00 SPECIAL.

Have you seen that Schwab Special $15.00 Suit at Coulter's? It meets the requirements of the well dressed man at a minimum price. It is a hummer and can't be equalled for quality and style. 266

COLLEGE OVERFLOWS.

Tents Will Be Used to House Those Who
Are Crowded Out of Barracks.
New Students Denied.

College Station, Tex., Sept. 30.—

The thirty-first annual session of the Agricultural and Mechanical College has begun under the most favorable circumstances in the history of the institution. Although only about 350 students can be comfortably cared for in the barracks, there are more than 500 young men on the grounds and scores more have been denied admission. Applications for admission continue to come in by wire, by long distance phone and by letter. All such requests from new students received since Tuesday, the second day of the term, have been denied without reference to the applicants' preparation. The college authorities are experiencing no little embarrassment in taking care of the increased attendance. The barracks are full to overflowing and most of the rooms have three men in them. The cottage formerly occupied by Prof. Craig was pressed into use as a dormitory and about seven-five members of the senior class are quartered therein. In addition arrangements are being made to secure comfortable army hospital tents sufficient in number to quarter fifty or more young men. It is contemplated to call for volunteers to occupy the tents until about Jan. 1, when the congested conditions in the dormitories will be somewhat relieved. The tents will be floored and provided with stoves and electric lights and will be as comfortable as the barracks in all except the severest midwinter weather.

The plan for the tents, if carried into execution, will relieve the crowded conditions in the barracks to some extent, but it will not relieve the crowded conditions in the class rooms, the laboratories and the shops. The mess hall, too, is taxed to its capacity to handle the crowd, but is not yet completely overrun.

One striking characteristic of the incoming freshman class is the superior preparation that most of them have had. A larger proportion of the new men are graduates of affiliated high schools and other good preparatory schools than has been true of former freshman classes. The old students have accepted the crowded conditions and adjusted themselves to the new situation without a murmur of complaint or protest.

NOTES.

State Superintendent R. B. Cousins was here this week on a visit to the Agricultural and Mechanical College. He was collecting data in regard to the school to be used in his forthcoming biennial report to the governor.

Hon. L. D. Amstler, a member of the board of directors, came up from Hempstead the earlier part of the week to chaperone a bunch of Waller County boys who were anxious to secure admission to the freshman class.

Dr. J. M. Carlisle, formerly State Superintendent of Public Instruction, now president of Carlisle's Military Institute at Arlington, was here on school business this week.

Hon. Leroy Trice of Palestine, general manager of the International & Great Northern Railroad, was here on business a few days ago.

Among many other visitors at the college the past week your correspondent noted the presence of Judge R. C. Armstrong of Fort Worth, Judge Hannay of Hempstead, Mr. Proctor of Houston, Mr. John L. Wade of Casa Blanca, Mrs. De Lisle of Marshall and Mrs. Dewees of San Antonio. All of them were here to enter sons in the college.

President Harrison attributes the increased demand for admission to the college to various causes, not the least of which is the loyalty and activity of the alumni. During the past summer they have waged an active campaign among prospective students in behalf of their alma mater.

The October Reader's Magazine, which has just been received, contains an interesting article on the Galveston Commission Government from the pen of Miss Ethel Hutson of College Station. Miss Hutson is the daughter of Prof. C. W. Hutson of the history department here and has devoted considerable time and attention to magazine work during the last few months. An article from her pen on the Texas Railroad Commission was a leading feature in August number of the Reader's. She has recently returned from an extensive trip collecting data for an article on the clays and pottery of Texas.

..New Styles for Men..

THIS IS THE GREAT CLOTHING EVENT OF THE YEAR--OUR ADVANCE SHOWING OF the new Fall and Winter models. As every one knows who is at all posted on the subject, the new styles are very largely originated by the Schloss designers and later copied by others. The present season is a good illustration. Now that our Fall stock is here, we can show you new advance models that will not be generally offered for at least two or three months.

THE NEW "HARVARD" SACK

Fashions don't come from London and Paris any more--most of them are brought out at the great universities like Harvard, Yale, Princeton and other famous institutions. Here is one of the best of the new designs for Fall, called the "Harvard" because the model came from there, well shown in the illustration. You'll find it just as correct for business wear in New York or San Francisco as it is on the Harvard campus. This is only one of our "University" Models. Ask to see them. Don't confuse the design with the ordinary "straight fronts" that you may see. The similarity ends there. Little differences of line and shape and proportion, impossible to describe, give the "Harvard" Suit an unusual character and smartness specially brought out by the fine tailoring.

Our Schloss Suits cost from

$12.50 to $25. Others $5 to $10

It Will Pay You

To see these splendid garments. Not only are you certain of the new style and the right style, but the quality, fit and incomparable workmanship of these garments are thoroughly exclusive characteristics. Furthermore we have very few duplicates and our best will be quickly taken. See them now; we will reserve your selection until later, if you so desire.

Taft eased up to a firm grasp on the Cuban situation with remarkable grace for a man of his avoirdupois.

With the Cuban flag afloat the Cubans don't seem to mind the United States taking charge until such a time as order can be restored. The question is do the natives down there really want order?

A Houston Post special from Groesbeek, in discussing the Hardy injunction amendment to be heard in Corsicana today, says in part: "It is not expected that Judge Scott will yield or give way to Judge Cobb without an order from the higher courts, so no matter what the decision of the court at Corsicana on October 2 may be, it will hardly clear the situation of its varied complications. It is rumored that this last move of Judge Hardy was made after an attempt to have the Federal court at Dallas, which is presided over by Judge Meeks, take jurisdiction and issue necessary orders restraining all parties from interfering with the order made by Judge Cobb and compelling the clerks to post and publish the name of Judge Hardy as the democratic nominee for congress, but that after taking the matter under advisement, Judge Meeks decided that the United States' court was without jurisdiction to hear the matter." Continuing the article deals at some length with the possibility of no name at all appearing on the ticket, taking the view that such a contingency would result in the election of T. S. Henderson over both Hardy and Mays.

THE SELLS-FLOTO SHOWS WILL SOON BE HERE.

An advance announcement says: Now comes the cheerful show press agent with his first aid to the children. The Sells-Floato Shows inaugurate their annual traveling season this year with the most costly, gorgeous and elaborate display ever seen under the enormous canvas.

The Sells-Floato Shows have grown to such magnitude as to necessitate enlargement in every department. And this famous amusement institution is proud of its home, and while en tour is ever a standing reflection of Denver's industry and genius.

The menagerie alone is nearly double its former capacity, for during the winter the old world has been scoured thoroughly for wild animals and strange beasts of every country, and now this attractive and highly educational department is complete in every particular. The cages, vans, chariots and tableaux cars are all new and especially attractive in wondrous architecture, conceded by all show men to be unequalled by any other firm, corporation, company or syndicate.

It has taken many years and several fortunes to place this department on such lavish magnitude, to tickle the fancy and satisfy the mind of the generous public. When witnessing the grand street display from which no revenue is derived--only the gratification to please both young and old children--remember that what follows in the big canvas is more meritorious. In the main tent many new features will surprise and delight the beholder, daring acrobatic acts will fill out a long program, more than enough to satisfy and please the most exacting critic and astonish everyone else. Two performances are given daily, rain or shine.

Coming on Thursday, Oct. 11 to Bryan.

Knew Combination.

City of Mexico, Oct. 1.—By confession it has been learned that the perpetrators of the robbery of the safe in the Second court were two employees who knew the combination of the safe.

TWO HEROES.

Save Lighthouse Keeper and His Family by Thrilling Work.

Mobile, Oct. 1.—Revenue cutter Winona, which was thought lost, has arrived. Her crew tell a thrilling story of the dangers through which they passed, and narrate in a modest way the heroic conduct of the two men, members of the crew, who rescued the keeper of the East Pascagoula lighthouse and his family. These men were Master at Arms Peterson and Quartermaster Peterson. When the Winona arrived off Pascagoula lighthouse it was said that it was almost destroyed, nothing being left but the tower, which was swaying in every gust of the gale, and threatening to collapse at any moment. It was soon by the keeper, whose wife and two babies had sought refuge in the tower, that unless speedy relief was given them they must be lost. The two Petersons embarked in a small boat, with other members of the crew, and after a desperate fight with the waves, reached the base of the tower. The keeper threw to them from the top a line which he had carried up. One after the other, the two Petersons climbed the rope, which dangled from the tower, the wind caught them, hurled them against the building with such force as to bruise them badly, and they were several times almost compelled to lose their hold upon the rope, but they finally reached the top, and then they lowered to the men waiting below, first the two babies, then the keeper's wife and the keeper himself. When all of these had been saved, the two men slid down the rope and returned to the Winona. Captain Hanks of the revenue cutter praises in the highest terms the conduct of the two Petersons, and declares that he does not believe that a more heroic rescue was effected during the storm. The Winona was at Scranton, Miss., when the storm broke, and although she weathered the blow without serious damage, she had a fearful time in doing so. The wind at times was so severe that although the boat had out four anchors, she was compelled to maintain full speed ahead to hold her position. While the storm was at its height the wreck of a sloop drifted past, and although the Winona was having all she could do to save herself, Captain Hanks lowered a small boat, and after a struggle with the water, which at times seemed almost hopeless, managed to bring off seven persons, most of them being women.

The captain reported that as he steamed past Dauphin island on his way to Mobile a message was sent him through the megaphone stating that there are 300 people on the island who are suffering for supplies. A relief expedition will be sent to them.

The Winona reports that Horn island lighthouse is totally destroyed, and that the keeper, Charles Johnson, and his family lost. This was before the arrival of the Winona. However, the body of Johnson was found in the sea and was brought to this city for burial. Nearly every aid to navigation between Mobile and Gulfport has been destroyed, and Round island light is the only one on that portion of the coast which now burns at night. The quarantine station on Ship island was damaged to the extent of $60,000, but no lives were lost. Captain Hanks reports that there are wrecked vessels all along the east end of Cat island, on Ship island, on Horn island, on Petit Bois island and Dauphin island. Grant's island was so fiercely swept by the storm that it can hardly be seen, but the channel itself has not been changed.

Major Slaker, commanding the United States forces at Fort Gaines and Fort Morgan, which are situated at the entrance to Mobile bay, has recommended to the government at Washington that the troops now stationed there be removed as speedily as possible. The barracks have been almost destroyed, all sanitary arrangements having been rendered useless, and Maj. Slaker is apprehensive that unless the men are quickly moved, there will be much sickness among them. In his opinion, the two forts, as they now exist, are not habitable by garrisons until they have been extensively repaired.

The known dead in this section up to Monday morning was placed at seventy-nine. It is thought it will hardly reach 125.

NOT A LIFE LOST.

Mobile Appreciates Offer, but Can Take Care of Destitute.

Mobile, Oct. 1.—Paul J. Wilson, secretary of the Commercial club, requested the Associated Press to send out a denial of the stories which have been sent broadcast throughout the country regarding the loss of life and suffering in this city. Not a single life has been lost, and the citizens of Mobile have the situation in splendid shape. Offers of assistance have been received from the commercial clubs throughout the south, and while the residents of Mobile appreciate these at their full value, there is no suffering in this city which calls for outside assistance. The greatest destitution and privations have been accompanied by people south of Mobile and along the gulf coast, and for these aid and supplies will be gratefully received.

The greatest difficulty is being experienced by the authorities in obtaining news of the situation at outside points. People who understand the physical geography of the country around Mobile do not need to be told that the city is virtually on an island. Impassable swamps surround it on all sides except where there is open water. The only passageways through these swamps are the roadbeds of the railroads, and these reaching the stricken territory are not in shape to allow the running of trains. The only other way of getting around is by small boats, and there are no small boats, almost everything of that description having been destroyed by the storm.

Great Building Activity.

City of Mexico, Oct. 2.—There is great building activity in this city.

PALMA POOR.

Ex-President Leaves the Palace Practically Penniless.

Washington, Oct. 1.—Senor Quesada, Cuban minister, when seen Monday said he had not received any reply from Secretary Taft to his letter of resignation transmitted Saturday. The retiring minister entertains toward former President Palma a feeling of the greatest attachment and sympathy. "After spending forty of the seventy-three years of his life in fighting for Cuban liberty, President Palma leaves the palace in Havana without a dollar," said Senor Quesada. "His private fortune, as well as the best energies of his life, have been practically poured out in the cause of his country."

"I have cabled to President Palma an invitation to make my house his home if he decides to come to the United States. Although President Palma is practically penniless, he has hosts of friends who will remain steadfast, even though adversity has become his portion."

Mr. Quesada made known Monday for the first time that a year ago he had tendered his resignation, but that President Palma had declined to accept it. He said it was his purpose to return to Cuba and participate in the election to be arranged by the provisional government, as he had no ambitions for future office.

KEPT INFORMED.

Taft Is in Constant Communication With the President.

Washington, Oct. 1.—Secretary Taft is in constant communication with President Roosevelt concerning the Cuban situation, but has not seen fit to communicate with the war department officials since Saturday.

Preparations for the first expedition to Cuba are being hastened with all possible speed. Officers and clerks at the war department worked practically all Sunday night and advised from troops ordered to mobilize at Newport News indicate they will be ready as soon as transports are available.

The second battalion of engineers left here Monday to go aboard the Summer at New York.

Two complete field hospital outfits will go to Cuba, sailing on the first transport leaving Newport News.

TEXAS HELD.

Taft Wants More Marines, but Has Ample Battleships.

Washington, Oct. 1.—The battleship Texas has been held at Cape Henry awaiting further instructions from Secretary Taft. The secretary wired the navy department that he did not need any more battleships, but wanted more marines. He has been informed that the Texas has 200 marines on board and further supplies for land service.

Marines Land.

Havana, Oct. 1.—A brigade of marines, consisting of 750 men, commanded by Major Wendell C. Neville, landed at 8 o'clock Monday morning from the warships Kentucky, Indiana and Minneapolis and proceeded by trolley to Camp Columbia. There was no demonstration of any kind.

Needed at Pensacola.

Washington, Oct. 1.—Orders directing the dispatch of forty marines from the Pensacola navy yard to Havana have been revoked. A dispatch from Pensacola says the men are needed at that place to preserve order and protect property owing to conditions arising from the recent hurricane.

ASKED TO TELL.

J. Ogden Armour and Other Packers Requested to Testify.

Chicago, Oct. 1.—J. Ogden Armour and other Chicago packers, says the Tribune, have been asked to go before United States Commissioner Taylor and tell what they know about the operation of a packery trust in Arkansas. The Arkansas anti-trust law prohibits any corporation from engaging in any pool, trust or conspiracy to control prices or to fix the amount of the product handled in the state.

Al Adams' End.

New York, Oct. 1.—Al Adams, formerly head of policy gambling in the United States, suicided.
